PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT

Did Not Pledge Himself to Any Amendments to Rate Bill.

NOT TRYING TO DICTATE ACTION

Declares In No Case Was There the Slightest Opportunity For Any Honest Misconception of His Attitude and Did Not Insist On Certain Amendment As a Condition of His Approval.

Washington, May 15.—The sensational rate bill incident in the senate Saturday, during which Mr. Tillman, on the authority of former Senator Chandler, made statements regarding the president's course in connection with pending railroad rate legislation, some of which statements were denied by Mr. Lodge on behalf of the president, had its sequal when an official statement was issued by the White House giving an account of the subject on the part of the president and Attorney General Moody. The statement comprised two letters, one from the president to Senator Allison and the other from Attorney General Moody to the president. The president says:

"In no case, either in the case of Mr. Chandler or any one else, was there the slightest opportunity for any honest misconception of my attitude or any belief that I pledged myself specifically to one, and only one, amendment or set of amendments, or that I would not be satisfied with any amendment which preserved the essential features of the Hepburn bill as it came from the house.'

The president says that as to many of the amendments, including the so-called Long, Overman, Bacon and Spooner amendments, he had said he should be entirely satisfied to have them in the bill, and suggested modifications as to other amendments, but that "as to none (of the amendments) did I ever say either to Mr. Chandler or to any one else that I should insist upon having them in the bill as a condition of my approval," and that on the contrary, he the president, was careful to state that he was not trying to dictate any particular programme of action.

The president then says: "I also repeatedly stated that while it was entirely satisfactory to me to simply leave the Hepburn bill in substance as it was, that it, with the recognition of the jurisdiction of the courts but without any attempt to define that jurisdiction, yet that I was entirely willing that there should be a definition, provided that this definition did not seek to grant a broad review, but explicitly narrowed it to the two subjects which as a matter of fact I believed that the courts would alone consider in case there was no attempt to define the limits of their review; that is, would limit it to the question as to whether the commission had acted ultra vires and as to whether any man's constitutional rights had been impaired. I stated that if the question of defining or limiting the review was brought up at all I personally felt that this was the way in which it should be limited or defined."

The president says the statements made to Senator Chandler were the same in substance as those made to Mr. Allison and other senators of both parties. He said he was asked to see Senator Chandler as the representative of Mr. Tillman in charge of the bill, and that the conferences Attorney General Moody had with Senators Tillman and Bailey were such as had been held with many other senators to determine the phraseology and discuss the effect of amendments proposed by them. The president states that he became convinced that it was impossible for senators "with advantage" to use him as an intermediary, and suggested to all to whom he spoke that they communicate with Senator Allison, whose purposes and the president's were "identical."

The president says that his own opinion that the Allison amendment in no way changed the court review as provided in the original Hepburn bill is also the opinion of Attorney General Moody and Secretaries Root and Taft.

The attorney general's letter gives an account, at the president's request, of the conferences which Mr. Moody had, by the president's direction, with Senators Tillman and Bailey regarding the court review feature. He says he advised the president that he should not, at any stage, become finally committed beyond recall to any form of language in any part of the bill, and the president affirmed the wisdom of that course. He reviews the discussion of interlocutory injunctions, and concludes that there was nothing in the "conversations" between the senators and himself which bound the president to any particular amendment.

Senator Tillman talked freely with a number of his callers about the statement issued by President Roosevelt. He expressed his preference, however, not to be quoted, pointing out that whatever he wished to say on the subject of the statement he would say on the floor of the senate. He expects that the question will be brought to the front in some way in the senate. He discussed the president's statement with former Senator Chandler, and he urged Mr. Chandler to issue a statement giving a full history of the whole matter. Senator Tillman wanted the fact to go into the newspapers that he did not in any way initiate the negotiations with the president regarding the Democratic support for the railroad rate bill, and that he did not ask Senator Chandler to go to the White House.

BRUTAL ASSAULT ON UMPIRE

Knocked Down With Bat and Kicked Insensible By Player.

Punxsutawney, Pa., May 15.—J. M. Shuster, of Chicago, while umpiring a ball game between Punxsutawney and Oil City of the Interstate League here was struck to the ground with a ball bat, and kicked into insensibility by Left Fielder Clark, of the home team. Shuster is in the hospital in a critical condition, and Clark has been locked up by the police.

The assault, it was said, was started by Clark attempting to coach from the bench. He was ordered from the field by Shuster, and as Clark started to leave the grounds he walked to the plate, struck Shuster on the head with the bat, and when he fell to the ground kicked him until he became unconscious. Clark will be held to await the result of Shuster's injuries.

KILLED BY RUNAWAY

Prominent Cleveland Contractor Met Death Watching Circus Parade.

Cleveland, May 15. — Robert McQuoid, a former city councilman and a prominent building contractor, was instantly killed here at the exhibition grounds of a circus by being run over by a six-horse truck belonging to the show. McQuoid and his wife were seated in a carriage watching the people going into the tent, when the six horses attached to the truck ran away. The truck struck the carriage, throwing the couple out. The wheels of the truck passed directly over McQuoid's body, killing him instantly. Mrs. McQuoid escaped without serious injury. The runaway caused a panic among the crowd, and several other persons were slightly injured before the horses were stopped.

AUTO LAW UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Scranton Judge Rules Pennsylvania Act Is Void and Quashes Cases.

Scranton, Pa., May 15. — Cases against 21 automobile owners were quashed here by a ruling of Judge Newcomb, that the act of April 23, 1903, regulating the operation of automobiles, is unconstitutional. The judge decides that the title and body of the act are in variance, in that the law requires the owner to take out a license, and penalizes any one for operating the machine without a license. This the judge contends would be unfair to chauffeurs.

Revolting Story of Barbarity.

London, May 15.—A revolting story of Macedonian barbarity is related by the Vienna correspondent of the Daily Telegraph. In a recent conflict between Turkish troops and a band of Greeks in the vilayet of Monastir 14 Greeks were killed. After the fight the Turkish commander refused to allow the Greeks to bury their dead, and when the Turks had withdrawn a Bulgarian band appeared with a number of dogs, which devoured the bodies. The Greeks in revenge ambushed the Bulgarians as they were retiring and captured 60 of them, whom they massacred, including some women and children, after first subjecting them to cruel tortures.

TILLMAN AGAIN DENIES

Says He Never Made Overtures to President on Rate Bill.

RENEWS CHARGE OF BAD FAITH

Declares Mr. Roosevelt Was Not Bound to Change, But He Was Bound Under Circumstances to Give Notice—The Incident Closed.

Washington, May 16.—While the debate on the personnel of the interstate commerce commission was in progress in the senate, Senator Tillman took the floor to make a statement on behalf of ex-Senator Chandler, which has been momentarily expected since Senator Lodge's conveyance last Saturday to the senate of the president's emphatic denial of some of the statements attributed to Mr. Chandler by the South Carolina senator.

Mr. Tillman read the portion of Mr. Chandler's memoranda of his conferences with the president which has heretofore been given to the public, prefacing it with a brief statement of his own saying that on Saturday the senate had been startled and mortified to hear the utterances of an ex-member denounced on behalf of the president as "a deliberate and unqualified falsehood." As he had been responsible for introducing the subject which had caused the attack on Mr. Chandler, he felt under obligations to place him right on the record. To that end he read the ex-senator's statement.

The reading of that statement was followed by the following from Mr. Tillman:

"There are only two points in the president's letter which I deem worthy of notice. His attempted explanation is ingenious, but not ingenuous. He calls in question the integrity of purpose and utterance of Mr. Chandler by declaring:

"'He was asked to see ex-Senator Chandler as representing Mr. Tillman, who was in charge of the bill. He stated to me the views of Mr. Tillman with seeming authority.'

"Mr. Chandler has declared most positively in a written statement that the president sent for him for the purpose of getting into communication with Senator Bailey and myself, and he has produced the letter to Mr. Loeb.

"I now declare most emphatically that to no human being have I ever given authority or even expressed a wish to have any conference with Theodore Roosevelt in regard to the bill now under consideration. On the contrary, I have expressed the opinion in more than one published interview that he had nothing to do with it, and that it was the business of the senate, and while I did, at his request, enter into negotiations with the attorney general, it is well known to every senator on this floor what my attitude and feelings have been, and it is most remarkable while the president sent for Democrat after Democrat to confer with him about this measure that he should undertake under the circumstances to assert that I sent an agent to him to begin negotiations. The statement is absurd on its face.

"The other point to which I shall refer is the cavalier way in which Mr. Moody discusses the id[illegible] the president not being bound.

"While contradicting in no instance, however slight, my statement of what occurred, the attorney general seems to think that the code of honor among gentlemen is not binding upon the executive and his cabinet.

"The president asked [illegible] to see Mr. Bailey and myself. We met by appointment made by Senator Chandler, and talked over the vital question. He wrote and sent to Mr. Bailey his understanding of our views, and when we met subsequently we reached absolute agreement, both as to the form and the substance of a proposed amendment to which he said the president would assent and help get votes for.

"Of course, the president was not bound to change, but he was bound under such circumstances to give notice, and this was not done. Even the attorney general himself was not notified. The charge I made, and still make, is that the president is guilty of bad faith, and that the rate bill which will be, when enacted into law, a much better and stronger measure than we had hoped to get has been emasculated of one of its most valuable and essential features by the president's action."

When Mr. Tillman had concluded Senator Allison asked to have read the president's letter to him. He only said that his object was to have the letter made as permanent of record as Mr. Tillman's statement. Attorney General Moody's statement to the president also was read.

Mr. Nelson interposed with a motion to lay the pending amendment to the rate bill on the table, which closed the incident.

FAVOR SUSPENSION OF CRAPSEY

Heresy Court Orders He Quit Ministry Until He Recants.

Rochester, N. Y., May 16.—The verdict in the heresy trial of Rev. Dr. Algernon S. Crapsey was delivered to the accused minister. Four of the judges state that in their opinion sentence should be passed as follows:

"That the respondent should be suspended from exercising the functions of the church until such time as he shall satisfy the ecclesiastical authorities of the diocese that his belief and teaching conform to the doctrine of the apostolic creed and the Nicene creed as this church hath received the same. However, we express the earnest hope and desire that the respondent may see his way clearly during the 30 days that under the canons of the church must intervene before sentence can be pronounced to the full satisfaction of the ecclesiastical authorities of such conformity on his part."

The charges against Dr. Crapsey grew out of a series of sermons delivered by him while he was rector of St. Andrew's church at Rochester and which he subsequently published in book form under the title "Religion and Politics." In brief, the charges declare that Dr. Crapsey in these writings denies the doctrines of the divinity of Christ, his virgin birth, his resurrection and the doctrines of the trinity, as contained in the Apostles' and Nicene creeds and the Book of Common Prayer of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States of America.

CRITICISES LABOR UNIONS

Manufacturers Say Their Attitude Toward Trade Schools is Criminal.

New York, May 16.—A criticism of the attitude of labor unions towards industrial schools was embodied in the report of the committee on industrial education to the National Association of Manufacturers. The report declared that labor unions have made efforts to hinder the perpetuation of trade schools. "Their efforts," said the report, "are nothing short of a crime against all those young men who desire to learn a trade, and are the cause, in a considerable measure, for the lack of skilled labor in the United States."

The tariff and reciprocity committee reported that under present conditions many manufacturers are greatly handicapped in the German market. The committee asked that strenuous efforts be made by the United States government to reach immediately a fair basis of trade wth the German emprie. Another need was stated to be some reciprocal arrangement for trade with Canada.

The secretary's preliminary report was adopted. It stated that "an anti-injunction bill of almost any kind was desired by the labor lobby" at Washington during the present session of congress.

May Resume Lake Strike.

Cleveland, May 16.—The conference between marine firemen and representatives of the Lake Carriers' Association, which has been on for the past two days, considering the question of wages, ended abruptly, the marine firemen leaving the conference and refusing to accept the proposed wage scale. As the longshoremen, grain scoopers and water tenders are affiliated together, it is believed the break in negotiations will carry out all of those elements and throw the lake carrying situation back to where it was previous to last week when the agreement was reached between the lake carriers and longshoremen which resulted in a resumption of traffic.

Railroad Laborers Riot.

Bristol, Va., May 16.—As the result of a riot which was incited by 75 Italian laborers employed on the South & Western railroad near Spruce Pine, N. C., one was killed and two seriously injured. For some unknown reason the men quit work and demanded immediate pay. The superintendent was unable to comply with this demand and threats were made to blow up the office and commissary buildings. A posse was organized to quell the mob, and when it approached the house where the ringleaders were assembled they were met with a volley from within. The fire was returned with the above result.

Fear War With Turkey In Summer.

Tiflis, Trans-Caucasia, May 16. — There is considerable excitement in Trans-Caucasia owing to the possibility of war with Turkey in the summer. Turkey seems to be mobilizing troops near the frontier, explaining that they are simply engaged in manoeuvres. Nevertheless the viceroy of Trans-Caucasia appears to be preparing for eventualities. General Malama, the chief of staff, has made an extensive inspection of the frontier, and the fortifications of Kars, the strongest fortress on the border, are being strengthened.

FATAL MINE EXPLOSION

Careless Foreigner Caused Serious Accident in Shenandoah Colliery

SEVEN DEAD; A DOZEN INJURED

Let Box of Dynamite Fall, Causing Terrific Explosion, Which Brought Roof Down On Men at Work—Bodies Badly Mutilated.

Shenandoah, Pa., May 16.—A Polish miner carrying a box of dynamite in No. 1 lift, Buck mountain slope, at the Shenandoah City colliery of the Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron company, accidentally let the box fall upon the rail. The dynamite exploded with terrific force, causing a section of the slope's roof nearly 200 feet long to crash down into the gangway, where 60 miners were at work.

Ten who escaped injury from the falling mass of earth and stones were hurled from their feet by a second explosion, due to the escaping gas coming in contact with the naked lights on the caps of the miners.

Fifty of the entombed miners were rescued alive. They were a mile inside of the scene of the explosion and the ventilation was not affected by the black damp which accumulated in the section of the mine outside of the point where the gangway was closed and where the men were killed.

The list of dead will not be more than seven. Five have been recovered. The known dead are:

Anthony Pitcavage, body badly mutilated.

Anthony Czek, body badly mutilated; was identified by his little finger being missing.

John Gusko, blown almost to atoms, arm and leg missing; was identified by a glass eye he wore.

Two of the bodies are so badly mutilated as to prevent identification.

A door boy is known to have perished, but his body has not been taken from the mine.

The injured are: William Powell, fire boss, arm and leg broken; William Wilkowski, miner, left arm blown off, body badly cut and burned about the face and body; Monroe Adams, fire boss, overcome by black damp, left arm broken; Fred Carl, Jr., son of the foreman of the mine, was blown 50 feet from a wagon into an old breast, and had both legs broken; Charles Hirsch, left arm and leg broken, head, face and body badly burned; Charles Boncavish, body terribly cut and bruised about the face, head and chest, also badly burned; William Densch, driver, injured about the body, head and face slightly burned; George Fiest, loader boss, blown 25 feet, injured and badly burned about the head and face; Patrick O'Brien, John Davis and Samuel Wassel, blown along the gangway from 25 to 50 feet, but escaped with slight burns and slight injuries.

There were five mules killed and six injured. The force of the explosion drove the mine's wagons along the gangway, tearing big timbers out of place and causing the gangway to close for 200 yards or more. The work of rescue was extremely dangerous, owing to the continuous falling of the roof, and the black damp, driving the brave rescuers, headed by William Stein, former state mine inspector, and Archie B. Lamb, state inspector, back to places of safety.

The scene about the top of the shaft was most pathetic. Big strong men, as well as women and children, were crying and weeping, expecting every moment to see those nearest and dearest to them hoisted from the black pit to the suface dead or mangled.

Atlanta, Ga., May 16.—About 40 houses, occupied for the most part by negroes, were burned in South Atlanta. The loss will be $40,000. STOLE $50,000 W[illegible]H OF GOODS

Steamboat Compan[illegible] Victimized By Daring [illegible]eme.

New York, May 16. — A scheme whereby truckmen are alleged to have stolen about $50,000 worth of goods from the Southern Pacific Steamship company, the Morgan line and other steamship companies, was made public by the district attorney's office. The story was given out following the arrest on charges of grand larceny, of Daniel Stratton, Adrian E. Post and Frederick Palm, who were held in $20,000 bail each. Two other prisoners are in the Tombs on suspicion.

After two months of work detectives solved the alleged robbery scheme, by which it is charged truckmen, upon receiving goods from the shippers, instead of carrying them to the steamship companies for shipment, took them directly to "fences." Then, with empty trucks, they drove to the companies' pier, where a clerk, said to be in the conspiracy, had the proper papers made out to indicate that the goods had been received by the company. The conspirators are alleged to have forged the name of some innocent clerk to the bill of lading, thereby escaping detection.

TROUBLE WITH NEGRO SOLDIERS

Three Men Killed In Attempt to Arrest Disorderly Men.

Crawford, Neb., May 16. — Three men have been killed as a result of an attempt by Night Watchman Arthur A. Moss and his brother, J. H. Moss, to arrest some disorderly colored soldiers from Fort Robinson Sunday night. The dead are: Arthur A. Moss, night watchman; Jordan Taylor and Philip Murphy.

Sergeant John Reid, of the 10th cavalry, shot and killed Arthur A. Moss, and Jordan Taylor struck J. H. Moss with a gun, breaking his arm. Reid was arrested and Taylor was killed by officers while trying to escape. Sunday night there was strong talk of lynching Reid, and a guard of troops was stationed around the jail. About midnight Sunday, Philip Murphy, who was intoxicated, while passing the jail, refused to obey the orders of the guards and was shot dead. There is much excitement here, and Reid was taken to the county jail at Chadron for fear an attempt would be made to lynch him.

LOOTED INSURANCE COMPANY

Former President of Northwestern Life Makes Sensational Disclosures.

Minneapolis, May 10.—Astounding disclosures as to what the state's attorney says was the looting of an insurance company were brought to light in the examination of William Bechtel, formerly president of the Northwestern Life Insurance company, now on trial, charged with the larceny of $3500 from the insurance company. In makingexplanations, the witness disclosed payments of $113,500 to Dr. Jacob Force as reimbursement for loss of contract, Force having been induced to retire from the presidency in favor of Bechtel.

Other statements made by Bechtel while on the stand related to personal profits made by transactions supposedly carried on for the benefit of the company. The company contracted to reinsure an Iowa company, but instead of doing so, Bechtel turned the contract over to a California company at a profit of $40,000.

The site of the Minneapolis Auditorium building, which the Northwestern National Life erected, was sold by Bechtel to the company at a profit to Bechtel of $40,000.

Bechtel also testified that he had paid $30,000 to Superintendent of Agency Campbell for the surrender of his contract.

Beck and Jones were stopping at thesame hotel as Genter and called him out of his room on the pretense that he was wanted at the telephone. As Genter passed through the darkened halls of the hotel he was set upon and badly beaten.

It is said that the men are strangers in Windber and are there installing machinery in the Berwind-White coal plants. Mrs. Genter asserts she heard Superintendent Garrett, of the mining company, engage quarters for the men.

He himself, acting as an agent of the Standard Oil company, had, he said, appointed agents at various places on the Iron Mountain road in Missouri.

SOLDIER AND SCIENTIST.

Varied Achievements of General Adolphus W. Greely.

Major General Adolphus W. Greely, who commands the regular army troops of the division of the Pacific, was absent from San Francisco when the destruction of that city by the elements occurred. He had started east to attend the wedding of his daughter, but took the first train west again when he learned of the disaster. During his absence Brigadier General Frederick Funston, who is in command of the department of California, one of the departments under General Greely's jurisdiction, was in charge of the military forces which did such effective service in preserving order and administering relief. When General Greely resumed the chief command at the Presidio he did not omit to commend General Funston for what the latter had accomplished.

General Greely's qualifications for directing work such as that which has fallen to the regular troops in connection with the San Francisco disaster have been obtained in many hard schools of experience. He is not a West Point graduate and was not educated in boyhood in the science of war. Born in 1844 at Newburyport, Mass., he attended the high school of his native town and graduated just as the civil war broke out. He enlisted at once in the Union army and served throughout the war, being wounded three times. He was brevetted a major at the close of the great civil struggle, in 1867 was appointed a lieutenant in the regular army and was detailed on signal corps duty in the south and west. In 1881, in pursuance of the recommendation of the Hamburg international geographical congress, he was placed in command of the United States expedition to establish one of a chain of thirteen circumpolar stations. Greely's arctic experiences form one of the most thrilling chapters in the history of the exploration of the far north. He went nearer to the pole than any one else had been able to do up to his time. Many important discoveries were made, but most of the party perished of starvation, two relief expeditions failing to reach the imperiled men. Greely and six others were rescued at last by Rear Admiral W. S. Schley. General Greely was for many years chief signal officer and has superintended the building of thousands of miles of telegraph in Porto Rico, Cuba and the Philippines. He is the author of numerous works on military and scientific subjects.

Passing of San Francisco's Chinatown

SAN FRANCISCO'S Chinatown was long both a magnet for tourists and a plague spot in the community. The fire following the earthquake swept it completely out of existence, and in the opinion of many people its destruction was a blessing in disguise. It was headquarters for vice and crime, the depths of which the officials of San Francisco were never able fully to sound. In the new San Francisco care will be taken to prevent the vices of the orient from taking root so deeply as they did in the old. How deep underground the Chinese of San Francisco went in their efforts to evade inspection of their ways of living white men never knew, but the fire has revealed the strange and awesome facts. The conflagration made a complete job of it in Chinatown. Not a single painted wooden fabric was left. The flames ate down to bare ground, and joss houses, gambling dens, opium joints and theaters all went up like so much tissue paper. Hundreds of crazed yellow men fled from the scene, bearing in their arms opium pipes, money bags, ebony furniture, silk hangings, clothing and such other articles as they could snatch up in their flight. Some who lingered to save more of their property were driven out by soldiers when the flames pressed close upon the colony, but even the soldiers could not enter the holes in the ground where slave women who had lived for years without ever seeing the light of day were confined and where the victims of opium lay in a stupor which even an earthquake could not disturb. How many perished in these underground passages will never be known, but the fire has unmasked the secrets of the hidden city and laid bare tunnels leading down fifty, sixty, perhaps a hundred feet into the ground.

The Chinese colony of San Francisco is supposed to have numbered about 30,000. The Chinese quarter was near the old city hall and was full of winding alleys leading to all kinds of resorts and curious places of entertainment possessing a strange fascination for tourists. The population lived both above ground and under ground. Above ground as many as a dozen persons often slept in an apartment which a white man would consider too small for one. How they lived underground nobody can exactly say. Every tourist had the privilege of seeing Chinatown, and every tourist went away satisfied he had seen all the strange and mysterious things that were to be seen, but he was mistaken. Secretary Tsing, a Chinese aristocrat stationed at the legation in Peru, once took two white men to a theater in Chinatown. After the performance he conducted his friends to the rear of the stage, slid a secret door back and asked his guests to follow him. They walked for an hour through tunnels leading past doors to gloomy apartments, some of them dungeons, against the bars of which unfortunate prisoners of both sexes pressed their faces.

In telling afterward of their experience the visitors said that there appeared to be hundreds of women and children as well as men in this underground town. Ordinary tourists saw only the picturesque and more or less pleasing side of Chinatown. In the underground city rich Celestial merchants carried on a slave traffic, leprosy flourished, and numerous murders were committed. Battles between the "tongs" were fought and the victims buried far beneath the surface.

But now the catacombs in which these deeds were done and in which so many persons dragged out a miserable existence lie exposed to the glare of the sun. The new Chinatown, if such a place exists in the San Francisco of the future, will not rise above the holes in the earth which a short time ago were dens of vice. The Chinese are being quartered at some distance from the site of their former colony, and it is prophesied that the conditions which made the old Chinatown a plague spot will never exist again. In the days now gone by it was a very easy thing for a highbinder who had just shot or stabbed a fellow countryman to get away from the police. The roofs of many of the buildings almost touched. A fugitive would skip to a roof and, taking a plank, cross upon it to another building and next to another, always taking his bridge with him. Then he would [illegible] underground [illegible] either remain hidden away

How Scores of Bellefonte People Obtain Relief.

If it really were known how many Bellefonte residents have been cured of stomach trouble and digestion by Dr. Davis' Prescription, it might perhaps surprise you, but what is more surprising is the fact that any one will continue to suffer with heart burn, sour stomach, water brash, sick headache, mental depression, nausea, and other distressing symptoms of dyspepsia when there is a remedy of such great merit that it almost invariably benefits everyone that tries it. Pepsicola Tablets are the prescription of Dr. Davis, a physician who devoted a lifetime to the study of stomach trouble, and if your food does not agree with you, if you are tired, nervous, worn out, low spirited and your energy at low par, it may interest you to know that no other prescription in this world has a greater record of cures behind it, and there is nothing more certain to give you relief. Mr. C. M. Parrish will tell you that although Pepsikola is sold on the fairest kind of a money back plan, not more than two in one hundred ever come back for their money. This is the surest evidence of its marvelous curative properties, but so that there may not be the least doubt in your mind as to what Pepsikola will do for you, Mr. Parrish will hand your quarter right back to you if you should fail to receive the benefit you look for.

are caused by Indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart.

Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured.

oil of Honor.

"Good Housekeeping," a well known household national magazine voluntarily made a thorough examination and test of None Such Mince Meat, and placed it without reservation upon its roll of honor.

In the March number of Good Housekeeping, in the department of "Pure Food Assurance," we find

"None-Such Mince Meat, Merrill Soule Co., Syracuse, a semi-moist condensed compound of beef, apples, spices, sugar, raisins, currants, boiled cider and salt, without other preservatives or adulterants, no artificial coloring, produced under conditions as near to sanitary perfections as possible."

This guarantee, which could not be bought at any price, ought to satisfy the most particular house-wife. The sale of one million packages a month seems to prove the statement to be true. Your grocer sells None-Such. Try it, and satisfy yourself. You are the one.

INDIGESTION'S RECORD

"The best remedy I can prescribe for your indigestion, madam, is Green's August Flower. I know of several other physicians who prescribe it regularly."

¶Indigestion is making an awful record as a cause of sudden deaths. It is beating heart-failure in its ghastly harvest.

¶You read in the papers daily of apparently healthy and even robust men being suddenly attacked with acute indigestion after enjoying a hearty meal, and of their dying in many cases before a physician could be called in.

¶This should be a warning to you who suffer with regular or periodical attacks of indigestion. If these unfortunate victims of acute indigestion had taken a small dose of Green's August Flower before or after their meals they would not have fallen a prey to such sudden seizures.

¶August Flower prevents indigestion by creating good digestion. It also regulates the liver, purifies the blood and tones up the entire system in a natural way.

¶Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.

Chronic Bronchitis Cured.

"For ten years I had chronic bronchitis so that at times I could not speak above a whisper," writes Mr. Joseph Coffman, of Montmorenci, Ind. "I tried all remedies available, but with no success. Fortunately my employer suggested that I try Foley's Honey and Tar. Its effect was almost miraculous, and I am now cured of the disease. On my recommendation many people have used Foley's Honey and Tar, and always with satisfaction.' For sale by C. M. Parrish.

The Art of Flattery.

There are those who have an instinct which prompts them to offer verbal caresses to all with whom they come in contact, and there is no doubt that, if such people are gifted at the same time with good hearts, they greatly sweeten life. They do not know how to say, much less write, a disagreeable sentence. They see with their mind's eye the exact spot where a flattering word would produce pleasure or salve a smart, and the temptation to say it is very great. The pleasure they produce delights them, and they study to produce it again. No doubt they practice an art, but not a very black art, and it is difficult not to like them, especially if they are women. Real flattery—the really false article—can hardly exist with a warm heart. Plenty of folly and too much desire to be popular may go with that, but nothing else.—Family Herald.

Church Built of Bulrushes.

The first place of worship in Western Australia was unique in two respects—the materials of which it was built and also the several purposes to which it was devoted. This remarkable building was made at Perth by soldiers shortly after their first arrival in 1829 and was composed almost entirely of bulrushes. In addition to its use on Sundays for divine worship, it occasionally served as an amateur theater during the week and during the whole time as a barracks.

Sidney Krumrine Sells Hyomei Under Guarantee of Cure.

The changeable weather of Spring is directly responsible for the prevalence of catarrhal troubles in Bellefonte at the present time.

As a result Sidney Krumrine had a larger sale for Hyomei the past week than ever before in the years that he has handled this reliable treatment for the cure of catarrh.

If there is a single catarrhal germ in the system, Hyomei will search it out and absolutely destroy it, completely eradicating the trouble. The remedy has made so many cures among Sidney Krumrine's customers that he offers to pay for it himself if it does not benefit even the worst case of catarrh.

The complete outfit costs only $1, consisting of an inhaler, medicine dropper, and bottle of Hyomei, while extra bottles of Hyomei can be obtained for 50 cents. There will not be even this small expense if Hyomei does no cure, as Sidney Krumrine will return your money.

And a long pull describes the pathway of a woman afflicted with female weakness unless she is under the care of a doctor who has had successful experience in the treatment of such cases or else has found the right remedy which can be safely used independently of the doctor.

Forty years ago, Dr. R. V. Pierce found that women were being grossly maltreated—mainly through ignorance and carelessness, and he determined to devote himself to study and research till he found the real cause of their suffering and a proper remedy for it.

He found it, and dug from Nature's Laboratory, the earth, Nature's remedies for woman's weaknesses and ailments. He found in Lady's Slipper root, Black Cohosh root, Unicorn root, Blue Cohosh root and Golden Seal root, the required ingredients.

The remedial virtues of these he extracted, combined and preserved by his own peculiar non-alcoholic, glyceric processes, and the compound is now known the world over, as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

"The wearing of corsets too tight seemed to have brought on an abdominal pressure, weakening the ligaments and resulting in displacement, which troubled me until I was not fit to walk, and at times could hardly stand," writes Mrs. Beverly Sitgreaves, of 124 Fulton St., San Francisco, Cal. "A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Before the first bottle was used I felt much better. Improvement went steadily on, and within four months I was like a new and well woman once more. I am now perfectly well and strong, and extremely grateful to you for your blessed remedy—a boon to sick women."

NINE CHARGED WITH MURDER

Widow of Miner Killed at Windber Secures Warrants For Alleged Officers.

Johnstown, Pa., May 13.—Mrs. Mary Popovich, widow of Steve Popovich, a miner killed April 16 in a riot at Windber, made information before a justice of the peace, charging nine alleged officers with murder. The warrants are in the hands of Sheriff Begley, of Somerset county. The men are Captain W. J. Tanney, of a Pittsburg detective agency; W. D. Stephens, R. W. Given, Harry McCarr, M. Barrett, S. W. McMullen, W. K. Schultz, John H. Burt and one other. The afternoon of April 16 Constable W. McMullen interfered with a meeting of union miners and was mobbed by the infuriated men. A dozen miners were arrested and locked up. Later in the day a crowd gathered in front of the lock-up. McMullen appeared and a rush was made for him. He was rescued by alleged deputies, who commenced firing on the crowd. Three men and a boy were killed.

Sheriff Begley has denied that the men who did the shooting were sworn in by him, and Burgess Delahount, of Windber, professes not to know whether he swore them in or not.

TRADE OUTLOOK BRIGHT

Manufacturers Busy, But Weather Retards Retail Trade.

New York, May 12.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: Domestic industrial conditions are greatly improved by the anthracite coal settlement and the resumption of traffic on the lakes, while the international situation is much brighter now that the French elections have passed without a serious outbreak. Foreign conditions are of unusual importance to business interests in the United States owing to the present close relations of the money markets. Manufacturing plants operate close to their full capacity, with orders in the steel industry already running well into 1907, and structural work was never more active. Wholesale trade in fall and winter goods is on a large scale, but unseasonable weather causes much complaint regarding retail distribution of merchandise and retards work on the farms in several important sections. This element of uncertainty as to the crops tends to maintain quotations of staples at a high position.

Failures this week were 209 in the United States, against 197 last week, and 17 in Canada, compared with 21 a year ago.

Reading Shops on Full Time.

Reading, Pa., May 11.—Orders were issued by the motive power department of the Reading company placing the employes at all of the shops on full time. They have been working 36 hours at the locomotive shop for some weeks. The car and several other repair shops have been working 55 hours. All hands will now work 60 hours a week. The order not only affects Reading, but all outlying shops on the entire system.

miles. The men walked nearly the whole distance in order to keep warm. The battery lost one man by sickness during the march. Private Arthur Hall was attacked with malaria and died in the hospital at Austin.

D. B. HILL TESTIFIES

New York Bar Probes His Relations With Equitable.

WAS RETAINED AT $5000 A YEAR

Claims the Right to Practice Law While In the Senate and That Retaining Fee Was Reasonable—Was Never Consulted.

New York, May 12.—The sub-committee of the New York State Bar Association, which was appointed at the request of former Senator David B. Hill to investigate his relations as counsel to the Equitable Life Assurance Society and to report whether his appointment as counsel was in any way improper or unprofessional, and whether the compensation he received from the company was reasonable or excessive, met here, heard Mr. Hill in his own behalf, took the testimony of prominent attorneys as to the standing of Mr. Hill in the legal profession, as to the reasonableness of his $5000 a year retainer from the Equitable, and adjourned. Professor E. W. Huffcut, dean of Cornell University law school, and chairman of the sub-committee, announced that he and his associates would consider the testimony and submit a report to the grievance committee at the earliest possible moment.

During the course of his testimony Mr. Hill said:

"I never questioned that as senator I had the right to practice in the courts of any state or the United States. The law makes no provision against it, except that a congressman shall not practice before the government departments. I was employed by the state attorney general to try a case against the United States in 1892, when I was senator, and have tried numerous other cases while I represented New York state in the senate."

"Who was your superintendent of insurance when you were governor?" he was asked by Henry Galbraith Ward, counsel for the committee.

"John A. McCall was superintendent of insurance when I went in. He resigned shortly afterward to take a position as manager of the Equitable. I appointed Robert A. Maxwell as his successor. He served some time, when I appointed James F. Pierce to succeed him."

"When did the subject of the Equitable retaining you as counsel first come up?" asked Mr. Ward, questioning Mr. Hill.

The latter replied: "I first met James H. Hyde and the elder Mr. Alexander in Washington in 1889. I did not see either of them again until I was elected United States senator in 1892." Mr. Hyde came to see me then and stated that he had been informed that I was going to resume the practice of law when my time was not occupied in congress. I told him that was the fact, as I believed I would not spend more than half my time in Washington. The result of the interview was that I accepted an offer of $5000 a year to become consulting counsel of the Equitable."

"Were you ever consulted by the company in relation to matters pertaining to the insurance department?"

"I never was that I can remember."

At this point Chairman Huffcut asked: "Were you not consulted about the enactment of insurance legislation?"

"No, sir; never."

FUNERAL DRIVERS STRIKE

Drive Off With Hearse and Carriages While Mourners Are In Church.

New York, May 12.—Several hundred funeral drivers in the boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx went on strike in support of a demand that their wages be increased from $12 to $14 a week, that no non-union men be employed, and that their hours be shortened.

A funeral was delayed by the strikers at the church of the Guardian Angel, in West 23d street. While the services were in progress a walking delegate of the union ordered the drivers, who had brought the funeral party to the church, to leave. They obeyed, taking the hearse and their carriages with them. Before those in the church discovered the loss of their vehicles the pall-bearers had brought the casket out. It was placed on the sidewalk until an undertaker's wagon had been secured in place of a hearse. The mourners and friends went to the cemetery on street cars.

The strike tied up the undertaking business in New York so completely that about 150 bodies remained unburied. Hearses and carriages were driven away from churches, mourners were kept waiting all day in homes of the dead, and in several instances non-union drivers of hearses and carriages were attacked in the streets and police protection had to be called.

Paris, May 12.—The leather market in the Gobelins district was burned. Many workmen's dwellings surrounding the market were also destroyed. There were repeated explosions of carboys of acids and 2000 barrels of oil were destroyed. The walls of the market fell in, injuring several policemen and firemen. The damage is estimated at $2,000,000.

Concerning "The Man With The Muck Rake"

MISS IDA M. TARBELL.

"THE man with the muck rake" has been a notable topic of discussion since the president of the United States dignified him with notice in a recent speech. Mr. Roosevelt in this address did not wholly discourage and discountenance the "muck rake man." He acknowledged that he has done much good and that there is sometimes imperative need of his services, and he condemned him only when, like the man with the muck rake in "Pilgrim's Progress," he can look no way but downward and refuses to see that which is lofty and indicative of the good in mankind, perceiving only the bad and the evidence of degradation. It was a curious succession of events that culminated in the president's speech on this subject. One of the pioneer wielders of the muck rake in an economic sense was Miss Ida M. Tarbell, whose virile description of the operations of the Standard Oil company has done so much to influence public opinion on the subject of that great trust. She is the most notable instance of the woman with the muck rake. Following to some extent in her footsteps came Lincoln Steffens, now editor of McClure's Magazine, with his articles about the alliance between the corporations and the politicians in many of the states of the Union. Then Tom Lawson came along with his contributions to Everybody's Magazine on "Frenzied Finance," and close on the heels of the alleged exposes given by him came the insurance investigation with its revelations as to the methods of men high up in the financial world. Toward the close of this inquiry occurred the crusade of Collier's Weekly against Town Topics.

Some writers went to extremes in their comments upon the insurance investigation, in the opinion of District Attorney William Travers Jerome of New York, and he voiced a sharp note of protest in a speech at a dinner which preceded by only a few days the utterances of the president on the same subject. Mr. Jerome took exception to the phraseology of a series of articles by David Graham Phillips in a current magazine entitled "The Treason of the Senate." Mr. Roosevelt also condemned what he termed "indiscriminate assault upon men in business or men in public life." The president's utterance is said to have been suggested in part by an investigation he has been conducting into the truth or falsity of Upton Sinclair's new book, "The Jungle," wherein are described the alleged evils and abuses of life in the portion of Chicago known as Packingtown. Mr. Roosevelt determined to get at the facts as to the charges made in this book and if he found them measurably true to institute methods to change the conditions so forcibly described by this remarkable young writer. In pursuance of his plan he sent to Chicago two experts of the bureau of animal industry to investigate the inspectors appointed by the government and on duty in Chicago. They made a report to the effect that the book told the truth only in patches. Not satisfied with the extent of this inquiry, the president next ordered Charles P. Neill, commissioner of labor, to make an investigation of the conditions under which men are employed in the packing houses of Chicago. Still another phase of the investigation he Fleshmaking Food.

Cream gruel, according to an eminent English authority, is the ideal nourishment for thin folk. A teacupful taken at night immediately before retiring is said to give marvelous results. To be at its best it must be perfectly made, then thinned with sweet cream. Taken in that condition and warm, it is agreeable as well as fattening and produces just that sense of satisfied hunger essential to ideal rest. It is claimed that perseverance in the treatment yields such apparent results that the cheeks can be seen to expand from day to day.

Slaves to Spring Catarrh Restored to Health by Pe-ru-na.

SPRING THE TIME TO CURE CATARRH.

Pe-ru-na Invigorates Mind and Body.

Hon. Wm. G. Hunter, Ex-member North Carolina Legislature, writes from the Census Office Building, Washington, D. C., as follows:

"The greatest family medicine ever discovered, in my opinion, which comes from experience as well as observation, is Peruna.

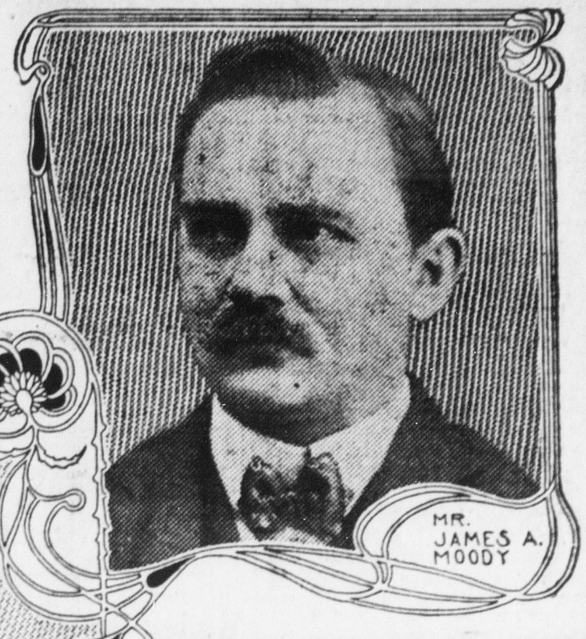
"The most common affliction to humankind is a bad cold. Peruna drives it out of doors, wards off catarrh, invigorates and gives fresh strength to mind and body. I give Peruna my unqualified endorsement."—Wm. G. Hunter.

Takes Pe-ru-na Every Spring.

Miss Tilly Marx, 421 14th St., Milwaukee, Wis., writes:

"I am pleased to endorse Peruna, as I found it very efficient in ridding my system of a severe cold and catarrhal trouble, after I had tried many other remedies without getting relief.

"I took Peruna for two weeks, when I was much better, and in two weeks more I was entirely rid of the cold and catarrh. I shall take it every spring as a tonic, as I found that it made me much better in every way."—Tilly Marx.



Miss Lydia Herziger, Grand Recorder of American Daughters of Independence, writes from Neenah, Wis., as follows:

"I have used Peruna now for four years, each Spring and Fall, and it keeps me perfectly well and strong.

"I am able to continue working and do not have to take a three months' rest, as I used to do every year. This is a great comfort to me, as I was not able to afford such a long rest.

"I find that it is a great preventative for colds and coughs and soon rids the system of all disease and is an admirable medicine. I can honestly endorse it."—Lydia Herziger.

Mr. James A. Moody, Ex-president Board of Education, Mineral Co., W. Va., writes from 814 Massachusetts avenue, N. E., Washington, D. C., as follows:

"My family have used Peruna for several years past with excellent results and I take pleasure in testifying to its superiority as a remedy for catarrh.

"Every spring that dreaded disease will show up in my family and we always turn instinctively to Peruna to ward it off.

"It has never yet failed, and I never lose an opportunity of recommending it to my friends."—James A. Moody.

Spring Catarrh.

Almost every one has come to believe that spring is a season that brings derangements of the body dependent on blood impurities.

This belief is an old one, is nearly universal, and has arisen, not as the result of the teachings of the medical fraternity, but has been learned in the bitter school of experience.

Nervous Depression.

Depression of the nervous system at the approach of spring is a fertile source of blood impurities.

There are general lassitude, dull, heavy sensations, continual tired feelings, with irregular appetite, and sometimes loss of sleep.

That Tired Feeling.

That tired feeling, which is the natural result of the depressing effect of warm weather immediately after the invigorating cold of winter, quickly disappears when Peruna is taken.

The Proper Remedy.

Peruna meets every indication and proves itself to be perfectly adapted to all their varied peculiarities. Peruna invigorates the system, rejuvenates the feelings, restores the normal appetite and procures regular sleep.

Do Not Delay.

Get a bottle of Peruna when the first languid feelings make themselves apparent in the spring. Take it according to the directions on the bottle. Continue this treatment through the first months of spring.

This course of treatment is no experiment; it is as positive in its results as any fact of science can be.

A Spring Tonic.

Almost everybody needs a tonic in the spring. Something to brace the nerves, invigorate the brain, and cleanse the blood. That Peruna will do this is beyond all question. Everyone who has tried it has had the same experience as Mrs. Winnifred Power, an artist, who, in a recent letter from 246 7th St., Portland, Ore., says:

"I am pleased to speak a good word for Peruna, as I found it an excellent tonic and spring medicine and very effective in ridding the system of cold and catarrh.

"About two years ago my system was all run down in the spring and I thought I would try and see if Peruna would be of any assistance in bringing back my health and strength.

"I found that it was splendid and all the medicine that I needed. In a little over a month I was well and did not need to take any more medicine.

"I shall recommend it to every one in need of a tonic, and know that I have only to take a few doses of Peruna when I take a cold and I will soon be over it."—Winnifred Power.

Nature's Assistance.

Spring is the best time to treat catarrh. Nature renews herself every spring. The system is rejuvenated by spring weather. This renders medicines more effective.

A short course of Peruna, assisted by the balmy air of spring, will cure old, stubborn cases of catarrh that have resisted treatment for years.

A Word of Advice.

To those who have been afflicted with chronic catarrh we wish to say that the spring season affords you a splendid opportunity to get rid of your disease.

It may be you have been afflicted for several years; you may have tried different remedies. Perhaps you have become discouraged.

Now Is Your Opportunity.

This failure was during the winter months. But now is your opportunity. Nature comes to your assistance at this season.

Just help her a little and she will bring you out of the quagmire in which you have been floundering so long. Give Nature a little assistance lest her struggles be in vain.

A Typical Case.

Geo. M. Fillmore, late 1st Lieut. 3rd U. S. Artillery, writes from 909 L St., N. W., Washington, D. C., as follows:

"I brought forward from winter into spring a sickening case of catarrh which was making existence miserable for me, until I was induced to try a bottle of Peruna.

"An immediate improvement gave me hope, if not relief. I kept up taking Peruna and it has so strengthened and relieved me that I am now confident of a cure. I heartily endorse Peruna for catarrhal affections and as a tonic for their weakening effects."—Geo. M. Fillmore.

A short course of Peruna now will be just in time. During the month of April you will find the strategic time to rid yourself of chronic catarrh, one of the most persistent, stubborn diseases in the whole list of human ailments.

After you have tried it you will say Peruna is positively the best spring medicine you have ever used.

A great many years of extensive trials of this remedy in this class of derangements have demonstrated that there are no failures.

Thousands of Testimonials.

Thousands of cases might be quoted in which Peruna has rescued people from the ravages of spring catarrh, and put them on a good, solid foundation of health.

We can give our readers only a slight glimpse of the vast array of unsolicited endorsements Dr. Hartman is constantly receiving. No other physician in the world has received such a volume of enthusiastic letters of thanks.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Spring Cleaning.

It is quite unnecessary to remind the women spring cleaning is an imperative convenience just at this season. They are alive to this fact, so much so that their husbands are inclined to grumble because of the promptness with which the women turn the house upside down and commence spring cleaning as soon as the first robins and bluebirds arrive. Very few homes escape this reasonable and sensible rejuvenating, thanks to the women who occupy them. But with the men it is different. They rarely want to do today what can be put off till tomorrow. The spring cleaning go till midsummer, then adjourn the work till next year, when they could. The proof of this is in the condition of the back yards, the corners of the numerous nooks and of which the trash accumulates and which have been piled high with all of every description during the summer. Now is the time to clean out these places and make them pleasant and wholesome, but though women are aware of the depth of spring cleaning that the women have hardly begun to think of cleaning up the deserted and dirty spots out of doors.

The bridal party was attended to the marriage altar by Miss Sue McGroarty as maid of honor and Mr. Joseph Vail a brother of the groom as best man. Lenords Mass in F. was well rendered by a boys choir under the direction of Mrs. John P. Kelley who presided at the organ.

After the cermony the bridal party was driven to the home of the bride's parents where an elaborate wedding breakfast was served. After a trip to Niagara and through the west, Mr. and Mrs. Vail will reside at Gillintown.

—As a Beech Creek train rounded a curve near Lock Haven on Saturday Engineer E. J. Morrison and Fireman Hoover almost simultaneously discovered a little girl apparently about three years old standing directly on the track. The engineer very promptly reversed his engine and Firemen Hoover lost no time in crawling through the cab window and down onto the engine pilot where he braced himself in preparation of picking the baby up. Before he could do so, however, the baby stepped outside the rail and the fireman called to her to lie down, realizing that this was her only salvation. She promptly obeyed, falling flat on her face. The engine pilot escaped her body by only a couple of inches and the entire train passed over her, the little girl emerging afterward unharmed.

Professional Gossips.

In China elderly ladies are regularly employed as gossipe, and they are paid well. It is usual for them to go to the best housee, beating a drum to announce their arrival, and to offer their services to the lady of the house as entertainers. If their offer is accepted they sit down and tell the latest news, the choicest scandal and anything that they think will interest their hearers. Should their stock in trade prove very delectable they most likely go away with a handsome present in addition to their regular fee, which is at at the rate of about 25 cents an hour. Some of these gossipe have a large number of clients, whom they visit at regular intervals.

Tendency toward a more stringent enforcement of the license laws, manifested all over the state,, has struck Lock Haven and Clinton county. At argument court Judge Mayer notified the attorneys present to acquaint their clients in the hotel business in that city and county with the fact that no disorderly conduct will be permitted in barrooms add that the visits of girls to these places must cease.

He issued also a sweeping order that throwing dice playing cards or other games of chance, either for money or drinks, or operation of slot machines will result in immediate revocation of licenses.

He gave notice that slot machines and other gambling devices in pool rooms and cigar stores will not be allowed, and that if the same are not discontinued, the district attorney will be directed to institute proceedings against the offenders.

The court is to be commended for calling a halt in these growing evils.

Doctor Peoples and Tobacco

Rev. Dr. Peoples gave a very interesting talk Friday evening in the Presbyterian chapel, concerning his Laos mission work in Persia.

In the course of his remarks, he said that the Laos converts were much addicted to the use of tobacco and that he could not, by precept or example, teach them to do otherwise.

Soliciting questions from the audience, Rev. Crittenden asked if Dr. Peoples considered this indulgence, on the part of the Laos converts, to be consistent with the self-denial which Christ in the gospel plainly enjoins on all of his disciples. The Doctor replied that he considered it a necessity as things are at present in Persia. The answer did not quite satisfy Mr. Crittenden except in the apostolic view of the case, that it was at present "expedient" for Dr. Peobles to be "all things to all people," on his field of labor in Persia.

New Pension Law Effected.

The age limit pension bill passed by both houses of congress has become a law. Under its provisions when a soldier of the Civil War arrives at the age of of sixty years he is allowed $6 per month without examination as to his disability. At sixty-one he gets $8; at seventy he is allowed $12. The measure does away with any question as to disability and gives every soldier a pension regardless of disease contracted in the war or since that time.

Base Ball.

State College Varsity base ball team defeated Lehigh University at State College Saturday by the score of 9 to 3.

The Bellefonte Academy won from Snow Shoe at the latter place Saturday by the following score.

Academy—4-3-0-2-2-2-0-0-2—15
Snow Shoe—0-0-0-2-0-1-0-0-2—5

State College Reserves lost to Williamsport High School Saturday at Williamsport by the score of 11 to 2.

Uses of Wooden Legs.

The other morning a one-legged peddler in New York woke up and found that his wooden leg, which he had placed on a chair beside his bed, was gone. He used the artificial limb which was hollow, for a bank, and in it he had deposited $434. It became known that the man used the leg for this purpose, and most exaggerated reports of the amount in it were in circulation; and, of course, it was stolen. A valuable artificial leg is not a novelty, the most famous being that of Miss Killmansegg which was of solid gold and of which she, like the New York peddler, was despoiled

But the most ingenious use to which a wooden leg was ever adapted was for a "speakeasy." In one of the towns of Maryland where the sale of spirituous liquor is not permitted by law, a one-legged man had his wooden leg hollowed, and in the cavity he carried whiskey. A spigot near the heel served to draw the beverage, and the man became a traveling bar. As he walked along the highways and byways—the latter, of course, preferred—he dispensed liquor to his customers, and out of this ilicit trade secured no small advantage.

Body Petrified.

Covered with leaves like the babes in the wood, the partially petrified body of a man, supposed to be Stanley Pastley, of Freedom, Pa., was found by forest fighters along the New Portage railroad a mile from Bennington last week.

He had evidently died of exhaustion as there was no marks of violence, and had been out all winter.

A Pension Decision.

ANOTHER HERESY TRIAL

Rev. Dr. Samuel Carter Repudiates Westminster Confession.

"AN IDOL OF MAN'S INVENTION"

Declares In a Letter of Protest the Confession Is Just As Much An Idol As Any Worshipped In Delhi, Pekin or Africa.

New York, May 12.—The question of disciplining or of trying on heresy charges Rev. Dr. Samuel T. Carter, who several years ago became prominent in an effort to have the Westminster confession revised, was taken up by the presbytery of Nassau at Jamaica, L. I. The meeting was called because of a letter, in which Dr. Carter declares that he does not believe the Westminster confession to be the truth of God, but "an idol of man's invention as truly as any worshipped in Delhi, Pekin or Africa." This letter is addressed to the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, which meets May 18 in Des Moines, Ia. The writer enters a "protest and confession." The letter is as follows:

"Fathers and brethren: The presbytery of Nassau overturned the general assembly a year ago, asking that the brief statement of doctrine be substituted for the Westminster confession as the confession of our church. By a practically unanimous vote the general assembly rejected this overture and retained the Westminster confession. By this action of the assembly many ministers are compelled to declare their acceptance of a confession which they do not heartily believe, and many of our best members to acknowledge a creed of which they are ashamed. I appeal from this action of the assembly to the manliness and honesty of the ministry and membership of the Presbyterian church.

"Many years ago, when I was ordained to the ministry of the gospel, I declared in the most solemn manner that I believed the Westminster confession to be the truth of God. I now, in an equally solemn manner, declare that I do not believe it to be the truth of God; that I utterly reject it is a setting forth of the character of the heavenly father.

"There never was, there is not now, and there never will be such a God as the God of the Westminster confession.

"It is an idol of man's invention as truly as any worshipped in Delhi, Pekin or Africa. I believe that the great and true God is infinitely and exquisitely good and gracious; that the one thing that we can neither fully receive nor declare is the boundless love of God; that all the noblest exhibitions of human love are but bright and beautiful sparks from that intense and divine flame—the love that through ages and generations has been leading men by the fullest wisdom and most tender providence to heights of knowledge, love and boundless hope that far transcend all human thought. I lift up this overwhelming divine love before my fellowmen, believing that this alone will draw all men unto him.

"I believe that the Westminster confession darkens and denies this great love of God, and should not be retained as a confession by any church today, and that our church is false to its great duty of being a true witness for God so long as it retains this confession.

"I send this protest and confession to the clerk of the general assembly, and I invoke upon it the blessing of Almighty God and the kindly judgment of all honest men."

Dr. Carter has been in the Presbyterian church for over 30 years, but is not now in charge of a church. More than a year ago his views were discussed by the Nassau presbytery.

The presbytery was in session only two hours. Upon its adjournment it was stated that the Carter case had been acted upon, but all the members were pledged to secrecy in the matter.

Licenses in Frisco Revoked.

San Francisco, May 13.—All saloon licenses in San Francisco were ordered revoked by unanimous vote of the board of police commissioners on suggestion of Mayor Schmitz, who said that he had decided that all saloons should remain closed for an indefinite period. He attributed the absence of crime and the presence of order since the conflagration to the fact that the edict against the selling of liquor had been rigidly enforced. In discussing this sweeping order, the commissioners voiced the sentiment that the future welfare of the city would be enhanced by a fewer number of drinking places.

New Billiard Record.

Chicago, May 12.—The world's record high run, 18-inch balk, two in, was broken by Willie Hoppe, who set the new mark at 307. The former record was held by Louis Cure, 255. Hoppe made the record in his game with Jake Schaefer, whom he defeated in eight innings, 500 to 193, in the professional tournament at Orchestra Hall.

This plan of division was adopted by a vote of 93 to 69.

EXPLOSION IN POWDER MILL

One Man Killed and Another Fatally Injured in Dupont Plant.

Wilmington, Del., May 11.—An explosion of powder, with fatal results, occurred in the Hagley or middle yard of the Dupont powder works. William McCrea, a workman, was instantly killed, and Daniel Comic was fatally injured. The cause of the explosion is unknown. There were two explosions in adjoining rolling mills. Fire quickly followed, but was suppressed by the Dupont fire brigade.

McCrea and Comic were experienced powder workers. At the time of the explosion they were changing the powder in their mills. The former was hurled against the rolling machine and instantly killed. Comic was blown into the Brandywine, a distance of 30 feet. He is terribly burned and bruised and cannot recover. McCrea leaves a widow, a week-old baby and other children. McCrea's father was a victim of an explosion at the Dupont works years ago. He was blown into the air, and in falling broke both legs. He recovered, but his legs were like bows ever after.

New York, May 11. — Twenty-two horses of medium class went to the post in the 15th Metropolitan handicap, and after a mile journey over the main course at Belmont Park in 1 minute and 39 seconds, John A. Drake's 4-year-old gelding Grapple, by Woolsthorpe-Embrace, flashed under the wire by three-quarters of a length. Second was F. R. Hitchcock's 4-year-old Dandelion, a head in front of James McLaughlin's Oxford. Israfel, second choice in the betting, was fourth, and Roseben, the public favorite, was fifth.

The betting against the winner was 8 to 1, and he was heavily played. The Metropolitan was worth nearly $14,000 this year, of which the second horse received $2000, and the third $1000.

OIL TRUST'S METHODS

Corruption of Rivals and Giving Short Measure Charged to Standard.

BRIBED THE RAILROAD CLERKS

Former Agent of Company Gave Sensational Testimony Before Interstate Commerce Commission — Sold Three Grades From One Tank.

Chicago, May 11. — Corruption of railroad employes and agents of independent oil companies, dishonest methods of procuring land leases, the giving of short measure and the selling of three kinds of oil out of the same tank were charged against the Standard Oil company at the hearing before the interstate commerce commission. The inquiry is held under and order of congress, and the session was along the lines followed some time ago in Kansas City.

The principal witness of the day was E. M. Wilhoit, of Springfield, Mo., for 10 years an agent of the Standard Oil company at Topeka, Kan. He made the charges of bribery and dishonesty against the company, and said that the 'Frisco road discriminated in favor of the Standard Oil company. He testified that while in the employ of the Standard Oil company he had, in following out instructions of his superior officers, bribed clerks in the offices of railroads and employes of independent oil concerns to obtain information of the details of the business done by the rivals of the Standard Oil company. He declared that agents of the Standard Oil company are held personally responsible for all oil sold in their territory by independent companies, and that drivers of tank wagons are expected to keep up their stock by selling 205 to 208 gallons from a wagonload of 200 gallons. He said that the actual tests of the products of the Standard Oil company to determine the quality are carefully guarded, and that when it was found necessary to cut the price to meet the figure of a competitor, a cheaper quality of oil was substituted and guaranteed to be of a higher grade that it really was.

Mr. Wilhoit said that frequently three grades of oil were sold from the same tank by agents of the Standard Oil company.

"Did you ever give short measure to your customers?" asked Commissioner Prouty.

"Well, we did not call it that," replied the witness. "I was frequently advised by agents of the company that my stock was not showing up as it should, and was told that it was a simple matter to sell 205 to 208 gallons from a 200-gallon load of oil. The company explained this by saying that the oil expanded in the wagon."

Attorney Miller, of the Standard Oil company, broke in at this point to inquire as to the scope of the investigation. He said it was his understanding that the power of the commission was limited to an investigation of the relations of the company with common carriers, and that so far not the slightest evidence upon that point had been given. He was opposed, he said, to the raking over of muck and scandal by going back 10 years in history.

"For your information I will assure you that the Standard Oil company is doing the very same things today," said Mr. Wilhoit. "I object to that statement," shouted Attorney Miller.

Wilhoit said that sometimes, when the Standard Oil company was able to obtain information regarding shipments by independents, it would load a passenger train with oil, beat the freight train to the consignee and then undersell them.

Wilhoit declared that the 'Frisco road gave a rate of $5 out of Springfield, Mo., to the Standard Oil company, which placed a heavy handicap on him and other independent dealers. The rate, he says, means about two cents a hundred, while he is charged 20 cents a hundred.

"I was told by a man named Duff," said the witness, "who is a checker for the 'Frisco road at Springfield, that at night after my barrels had been loaded men entered the cars and took the names of the consignees. I had the barrels placed with the address card on the bottom and the small doors of the car nailed up. Despite this, men crawled into the cars, turned over the barrels and took the names and addresses."

PAPER TRUST SURRENDERS

Withdraws Answer and Court Orders Decree to Be Entered.

St. Paul, Minn., May 12—The United States government secured an unconditional surrender of the so-called "paper trust" in the United States circuit court before Judge Sanborn. The attorney general began a suit on December 27, 1904, to dissolve an alleged combination between the General Paper company and 23 other defendants, on the ground that an agreement had been entered into by the defendants in restraint of interstate commerce.

Mr. Kellogg for the government and Mr. Flanders for the defendants appeared before Judge Sanborn, and Mr. Kellogg moved that the mandate from the United States supreme court affirming the order that the witnesses must testify be filed. Judge Sanborn ordered the mandate filed.

The witnesses then appeared before the United States examiner and offered to testify. The defendants then withdrew their answers. Mr. Kellogg then moved for a decree in favor of the government. Judge Sanborn ordered that the decree be entered for the government for the relief prayed and that the decree should be settled on June 16.

Says Publishers Will Suffer.

Menasha, Wis., May 12.—George A. Whiting, first vice president of the General Paper company, said that the company will now dissolve. "The newspaper publishers will find to their cost that they have killed the goose that laid the golden egg," declared Mr. Whiting. "The General Paper company was an organization formed legitimately as a natural means for properly conducting the business of the companies comprising it. When you consider that coal and other raw materials have gone up away above former figures, you will appreciate the very favorable prices that were granted to consumers. Any man with 10 cents worth of brains will see that this has been true. This yellow journal yawping about the General Paper company has been absurd."

They are charged with making false entries and false certification of checks.

Chicago, May 12.—John Alexander Dowie is critically sick in bed and his strength is said to be failing rapidly. Dr. Blanks, who has been in constant attendance on Dowie since his return from Mexico, said that Dowie might live 10 days, but that a fatal termination of the disease within two or three days would not be surprising.

Woman Arrested For Murder.

Worcester, Mass., May 12. — Mrs. Myra Bemis, of Barre, was arrested on a charge of murdering a former employe, John Hammond, whose death occurred under suspicious circumstances November 27, 105. 9Mrs. Bemis was brought to Worcester this afternoon. Mrs. Bemis is alleged to have murdered Hammond by poisoning him. Shortly after the man's death she is said to have collected $1200 that Hammond had in a savings bank. Hammond was buried under the general belief that the cause of death was alcoholism, but his body was exhumed last December, and the contents of the stomach examined at the request of his brother.

FATHER'S FIENDISH ACT

16-Year-Old Boy Held on Hot Stove by Drunken Parent.

NEIGHBORS THREATENED HIM

Lad Was Nearly Roasted Alive By Brutal Father Because Meal Was Not Ready — Police Break In and Rescue Him.

Philadelphia, May 11.—Held against a hot stove by his drunken father until his chest, back and arms were a mass of burns, the police say, 16-year-old Robert Costello, of 2735 Gordon street, was taken in a patrol wagon to the Women's Homeopathic hospital, where he is lying in a critical condition. The boy's father, Robert Costello, is under arrest.

Neighbors were so aroused over the man's asserted brutality that when they learned the details it would have gone hard with Costello had he fallen into their hands. Several of them visited the district station house and clamored that the man be brought out to them. The crowd was dispersed by the police.

The neighbors heard scream after scream from the house, and these were followed by a stream of oaths. Entrance to the house was tried, but all the doors were found to be locked. Naylor, a policeman, was summoned, and after hammering for admittance succeeded in forcing one of the first-story windows. He found the sound of the cries, which had become more feeble, to the rear of the house, where the kitchen is located. There he found the boy lying on the floor, his clothing still smouldering, while his father stood above him. A sickening odor of burning clothes and flesh filled the room.

Little could be learned from Costello. He maintained a drunken stolidity throughout and refused to talk even when he had been lodged in a cell at the station house. The boy was revived at the hospital, however, sufficiently to tell something of the occurrence shortly afterward.

He had returned early from work to prepare a meal for his father, it seemed, and had lighted the gas stove and started the cooking when he heard his father coming. He came lounging into the room, the boy said, and demanded food. The boy told him that it was not ready, but that he could have it in a few minutes. Angered, the father demanded that it be served at once. It seems that the father then seized the boy, who is small for his age, and held him against the stove, first his chest to it and then his back. The boy was powerless in the strong man's hands and his struggles were futile.

The police declare that the father's habits are solely responsible. Not alone was little Robert a sufferer from his father's brutality, but the other children as well, and even Mrs. Costello. The boy at the hospital is in a most pitiable plight. Besides the burns he has sustained, his ears are torn and lacerated, and he has numberless bruises about the body.

The appearance of the interior of the house led the police to investigate and as a result of their investigations they say that Costello's wife is a hard working woman, and the main support of the family, while Costello is usually drunk.

BANKER KILLED BY HIS BROTHER

Shot By Insane Man In Quarrel Over Money.

Montezuma, Ind., May 10.—W. H. Sylvester, president of the First National Bank of Montezuma, was shot and killed in his home by his brother, whose mind is believed to be affected.

Stephen Sylvester, the brother who did the shooting, was injured several years ago by a fall, and his mind has been affected since. Stephen had demanded money from his brother, and a quarrel and a fist fight followed. A neighbor named Pittman was called in by Mrs. Sylvester and he separated the men, Stephen agreeing to return to his home. Pittman released him, and Stephen drew a revolver and fired a bullet into his brother's stomach, killing him almost instantly. Stephen ran from the house to his own home and took refuge in a shed recently built by him with an iron roof and wooden walls eight inches thick. In the shed he had placed a number of revolvers, rifles and ammunition. He intrenched himself inside, shouting through the door that he would never be taken alive.

Sheriff Carter and Marshal Boyd approached the shed where Sylvester was concealed and called on him to surrender. After a moment's hesitation he said he would surrender if he was assured safety. This assurance was given and he surrendered and was taken to the jail at Rockville.

AMENDING THE RATE BILL

An Imprisonment Penalty For Rebating Adopted.

Washington, May 11.—The senate completed consideration of the second section of the railway rate bill, and just before adjournment listened to the reading of sections 3 and 4 without considering any amendments offered to them.

A number of very important changes were made in the second section, including a provision restoring the imprisonment penalty of the act of 1887, and an amendment suggested by Senator McCumber imposing a penalty of fine and imprisonment against shippers who secure rebates from transportation companies. The latter amendment was incorporated for the avowed purpose of hitting the trusts. Another amendment was offered by Senator Warren and adopted. It gives the government business preference over all traffic in time of war. A long series of changes were also made at the instance of the interstate commerce commission. Many of these were verbay, and all were intended to improve the administrative features of the law.

FLORIDA WATER KILLS FIVE

Indians Who Drank It Were Stricken Blind.

Rosethorn, Saskatchewan, May 11.—Five Indians are dead and six others are critically sick as a result of drinking a certain brand of Florida water on the Duck Lake Indian reservation. Three Indians died Tuesday. Two others, Nincient and Angoise, died Wednesday.

Coroner Stewart, of Rosethorn, held an inquest. Mrs. Nincient testified that her husband and five others drank one bottle of Florida water. Only one of the number is living now. Five other Indians, who drank another bottle, are not expected to live.

The Indians who drank the water were stricken blind, five dying without recovering sight. Those who survived still have blind spells.

Revolutions Won't Hinder Canal Work

Washington, May 11—Revolutionary movements or election troubles in Panama which in any way interfere with work on the canal zone justify the interference of the United States in support of the Panama government. Such is the tenor of instructions sent to Governor Magoon, of the canal zone, by Secretary Taft, who also submitted to Governor Magoon a letter from Secretary Root, of the state department, setting forth in detail what is stated to be the justification of American interference in case of disorder in any part of Panama. This emphatic setting forth of the position of the United States, it is believed, will prevent serious trouble at the elections to be held in June.

CAN'T BE SEPARATED,

Some Bellefonte People Have Learned How To Get Rid of Both

Backache and kidney ache are twin brothers.

You can't separate them.

And you can't get rid of the backache until you cure kidney ache.

If the kidneys are well and strong the rest of the system is pretty sure to be in vigorous health.

Doan's Kidney Pills make strong, healthy kidneys.

Mrs. Nancy Davis, of 246 East Logan Street, says: "I suffered a bad fall some years ago when living in Rochester. I thought at first that I had broken my back. I was unable to get up without assistance and from that time I suffered for years with a weak back and excruciating pains through the loins and through the small of my back. Sometimes I was completely prostrated and helpless. Doctors and medicines failed to help me and the pain continued until I got Doan's Kidney Pills. I took only a few doses before I began to feel better and when I had continued using them for a while I was thoroughly cured. My back regained its strength and the pain left me. I have had no return of the trouble since."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

THE WOMAN WHO COUGHED.

Catarrh had nearly ruined me. It had eaten away the partition in my nose; produced Asthma, Bronchitis, Rheumatism; ruined my stomach; in fact, gone all through my system. Then Grip finished me. I was a wreck; took cold at nothing; and coughed day and night. The doctors dosed me with opium and quinine. No good. Cough "cures"? Bah! Then Brazilian Balm renovated me. Killed every germ. Took 10 $1.00 bottles. Now I'm like a girl of 18.

Right Rev. James Blenk, of Porto Rico, Appointed.

Washington, May 12. — Right Rev. James A. Blenk, bishop of Porto Rico, has been appointed archbishop of New Orleans, to fill the vacancy created by the death of Archbishop Chepelle. Archbishop Blenk left here for Baltimore for a conference with Cardinal Gibbons.

The new archbishop in going to New Orleans returns to the field of labor he occupied before beginning his work in Porto Rico, which dates from shortly after the American occupation. It was while attached to the Marist community at New Orleans that Father Blenk was appointed bishop to Porto Rico, where it is said his wirk has been eminently satisfactory to the ecclesiastical authorities. He is about 52 years of age.

At first it was thought that he was seriously injured and he was taken to the hospital but a severely bruised hip was his most serious injury.

—There is no reasonable excuse for any man to live in a town if he doesn't like it. If you have no word of commendation to say for your town, its institutions or people, emigrate. Time will not stop because of your going away. The church bells will have the same musical ring, and the little dogs will play just as well. Speak a good word for your neighbor, if you can. If you cannot, don't everlastingly enlarge on their faults. If you have become entirely disgruntled, move away; go somewhere where things will suit you.

—James D. Luse, of Williamsport, has obtained a patent for a combination mallet and hammer, the striking heads thereof being so arranged that they will not interfere in the slightest way with each other, thus enabling the implement to be used with equal effectiveness either as a hammer or mallet. Thus two complete implements are combined in one, rendering it unnecessary for a mechanic to carry a cumbersome mallet about with him. Mr. Luse was a former resident of Millheim and is a son of Dennis Luse, of that place.

Reunion of Survivors of Co. H.

The first annual reunion of the survivors of Company H, 148th regiment Penna Vols., was held in the Baptist church at Port Matilda, Thursday of last week, May 3rd, and was quite well attended. Fourteen old comrades of the company were present and their combined ages totaled 928 years, or an average of 66 2-7 to a man. This in itself tells the story of how soon the men who fought so valiantly to preserve the Union intact will pass away from among us. The roll call of all those present showed the following members of Company H:

Capt. H. H. Montgomery, Sergt. H. K. Miller, D. W. Woodring and Charles Gehrett, Bellefonte; Jacob Frantz and Geo. W. Farnsler, Port Matilda; Alfred S. Smith, Samuel H. Orris and W. H. Shultz, Milesburg; George T. Jones and Robert H. Hudson, Philipsburg; D. L. Sanders, Renovo; George H. Neyman, Fleming, and Thomas H. Myton, Huntingdon.

Others who were present from the same regiment were as follows:

Company B—George P. Hall and John Biddle Fleming.

Company C—Amos Garbrick, Bellefonte; David Ross, Port Matilda; W. P. Harpster, Houtzdale; Henry Heaton, Yarnell.

Company E—Hiram Friday and John Monutz, Tyrone.

Company F—William Lucas, Philipsburg.

Company G—D. W. Miller, Pine Grove Mills; John W. Stuart, State College; Joseph S. Harpster, Port Matilda; Wm. A. Ishler, Bellefonte, and James A. Thompson, Halfmoon.

Company K—J. R. McNoldy, Altoona.

Those from other regiments who were present and joined with their fellow comrades in making the reunion a success were the following:

Job. Williams, Co. L, 3rd heavy artillery; Capt. W. C. Patterson, Co. I, 5th reserves; Jacob Casher and Thomas Donachy, Co. E, 51st Regt.; John McKelvey, Co. F, 4th Cav.; S. S. Miles, Co. F, 200th Regt.; Adam Cowher, Co. I, 201st Regt.; John Q. Miles, Co. I, 84th Regt.; and Dr. Theodore S. Christ, Griffus Weston, George M. Marks, W. H. Fry, John A. Daley, C. T. Fryberger and George W. Gill, of the 45th Regt.

The date selected for this reunion was the forty-third anniversary of the battle of Chancellorsville, in which engagement the men of Company H received their first baptism of fire and all those who recall the fierceness of that struggle will know the bravery of the boys who withstood it.

The reunion was called to order at 11 o'clock when Thomas H. Myton was chosen chairman and H. K. Miller secretary. Then followed a brief skirmish between comrades Harpster and Jones which resulted in the meeting adjourning until 1.30 o'clock. On convening in the afternoon an address of welcome was delivered by Rev. J. B. Durkee which was responded to by the chairman. The gathering then assumed the character of a campfire, or as the chairman put it, an old-fashioned Methodist class meeting, and many of the old comrades made brief speeches tentative to things of the present or told incidents of the stirring days of '61—'65. Letters of regret were read from the colonel and lieutenant-colonel of the regiment, from L. W. Ingram, of Oregon City, and others. A notable incident of the gathering was the presence of two of the oldest citizens of Worth township in the persons of William Lewis and Jonathan Laird, aged 92 and 82 years respectively.

What Parsifal Is.

It is "Parsifal," and more. It covers, connects and unfolds six fascinating legends:

The Story of the Knights of King Arthur.
The Story of the Holy Grail.
The Story of Sir Galahad.
The Story of Sir Launfal.
The Story of Lohengrin.
The Story of Parsifal.

It is more than a mere verbal lecture Mr. Rose has arranged the most melodious music from "Tannhauser," "Lohengrin" and "Parsifal," which may be rendered, if committees desire it, while the beautiful pictures are on the curtain and the stories are being told.

It is more than a series of ordinary lantern slides. The "Parsifal" slides are from a new-process photographs of the Opera. Every Act, every Scene, and every character is reproduced with fidelity to Beyruth and New York. The slides which illustrate the "Holy Grail," King Arthur," "Sir Galahad," "Sir Launfal," and "Lohengrin" have been made especially for this lecture and are like oil painting for richness. Each of the Hundred Pictures is colored exquisitely by the finest slide artist on our continent. "If the lecture were nothing else," said a New York artist, "it would be a dream of beauty in the presence of such coloring."

It is more than an evening of entertainment. It is a deeply ethical and religious appeal, although in no way sermonic. Rabbi Krauskopf calls "Parsifal" "The Simple Life set to music.' Dr. Hillis describes it as "the epic of a man's soul in music." Dr. Heber Newton says: "The man who is not inspired ethically and moved spiritually is beyond criticism." In Petrikin Hall Tuesday evening, May 22nd.
